The Fall of the King, adapted from Dr. Gülseren Budayıcıoğlu's bestselling novel, unravels the deep secrets hidden behind a life of greatness. Blending passion, betrayal, and power struggles, this gripping drama invites viewers into a world where nothing is as it seems. Kenan Baran, a.k.a. The King, is a charismatic and successful businessman who appears to have it all—wealth, prestige, and a perfect wife, Handan. Yet beneath their flawless marriage lies a painful reality. Kenan's endless affairs have pushed Handan to the edge, forcing her to question her worth. But when one betrayal crosses the line, Handan must finally confront her past and reclaim her strength. Kenan, always in control, suddenly finds his world unraveling.

Meanwhile, Fadi, a young woman coming from poverty, enters his life. Juggling school and work, she is drawn into Kenan's glittering world, disrupting his carefully constructed reality. Her innocence intrigues him, turning her into both a game and an escape. But as Fadi pursues her dreams, she, too, must redefine her values and limits.

At its core, The Fall of the King is a gripping tale of power, ambition, betrayal, and loss. As Kenan's empire crumbles, leaving him doomed to poverty and loneliness, Handan and Fadi fight to reclaim their lives. With deep emotions and unexpected twists, their struggle unfolds against an unavoidable fate. In this journey where love turns into betrayal, power into weakness, and winners into losers, the audience will be captivated until the very end.

KENAN BARAN

Halit Ergenç

Kenan is a successful and powerful businessman whose charisma and manipulative intelligence make him the center of attention. He builds a life of luxury, but his emotional emptiness drives him to engage in superficial relationships with women. Despite his loving wife, Handan, he seeks validation through affairs, always pursuing new conquests. His past traumas shape his need for control and power. The arrival of Fadi disrupts his established dynamics, leaving lasting emotional consequences.

FADi

Merve Dizdar

Fadi comes from a poor family and is the youngest daughter of a father who always dreamt of having a son. She is hardworking, determined, and carries a deep sense of responsibility for her sisters. She works as a waitress in a city club to support her family, and this environment marks her transformation into Fadi—a woman striving to fit into a higher social class. Her growing presence eventually catches Kenan's attention, sparking complex emotions and challenges that force her to confront her own identity and values.

HANDAN BARAN

Aslıhan Gürbüz

Handan is a graceful, loyal woman who has always been devoted to her husband Kenan, despite his emotional distance. She faces a deep internal conflict when she suspects Kenan of infidelity, which forces her to reconsider her place in their marriage. Her self-worth is tied to his approval, but as her sacrifices threaten her own happiness, Handan must choose between staying in the relationship or choosing herself.

ÖZLEM

Nilperi Şahinkaya

Özlem, Handan's best friend, is a successful woman known for her beauty and charm. Though she appears confident, she harbors feelings of jealousy and insecurity. She struggles with her desires, often pushing moral boundaries to achieve them. Her actions lead to deep inner turmoil as she faces the consequences of her choices, ultimately forcing her to deal with the complex dynamics of her own desires and the toll they take on her relationships.
