The Gentleman tells the story of a young man rising from the streets of Istanbul, where survival is a daily struggle and dreams come at a cost.

Yusuf grows up in one of the city's poorest neighborhoods, carrying the burden of his family after his father abandons them. Determined to build a modest life with his childhood love, Hazan, he works tirelessly, holding on to the hope of a future shaped by love and stability. But as financial struggles deepen and those closest to him fall into dangerous debts, Yusuf is pulled into a world of crime, power, and betrayal that shatters everything he once believed in.

Years later, he returns under a new identity, wealthier, stronger, and driven by a carefully constructed plan for revenge. His target is the powerful Kızılhan family, whose influence stretches far beyond what is seen, and whose secrets are deeply tied to the tragedy that destroyed his life. As Yusuf infiltrates their world, he begins to dismantle the fragile balance of power from within.

Yet nothing goes as planned when he finds himself drawn to Dila Kızılhan, the daughter of the very family he seeks to destroy. As past and present collide, and love begins to blur the lines of his mission, Yusuf is forced to confront the true cost of revenge.

At its core, The Gentleman is a gripping tale of power, class, and identity, where love challenges loyalty, and every choice brings him closer to either redemption or ruin.

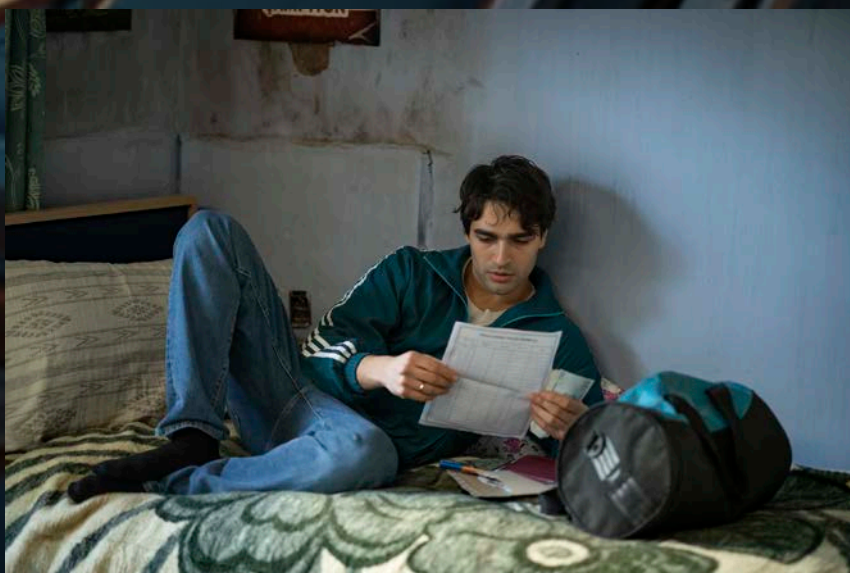

YUSUF

MERT RAMAZAN DEMİR

Yusuf grew up in one of Istanbul's poorest neighborhoods, carrying the responsibility of his family from a very young age after his father abandoned them. Charismatic, resilient, and driven by a powerful sense of justice, Yusuf believes in honor, loyalty, and hard work rather than wealth or status.

When a tragic chain of events destroys the life he dreamed of with his childhood love, Hazan, Yusuf disappears, only to return years later as a powerful and enigmatic man with a carefully planned mission.

Driven by revenge but torn by unexpected love, Yusuf must navigate a dangerous world of power, betrayal, and ambition while deciding whether he will remain a man of vengeance... or become the gentleman he was always meant to be.

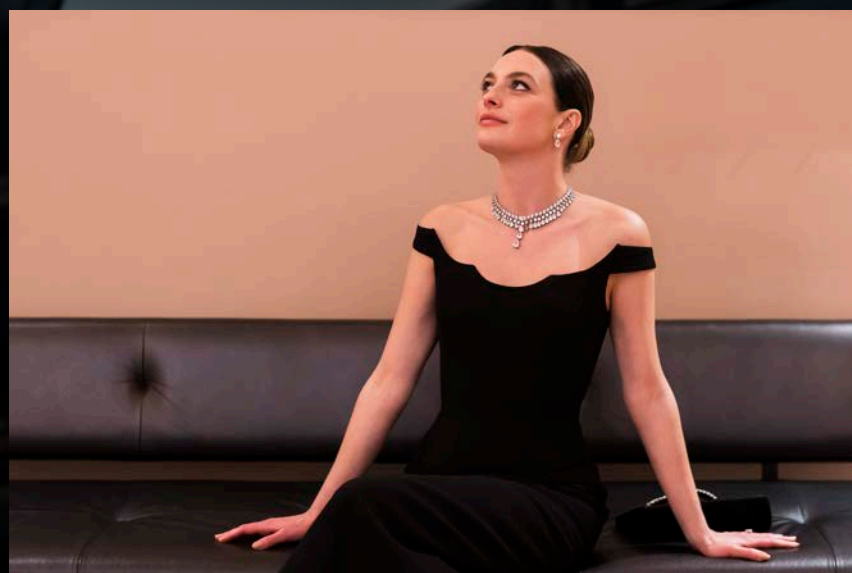

HAZAN

MELİS SEZEN

Hazan is the most beautiful girl in the neighborhood, and the love of Yusuf's life.

Although she truly loves Yusuf, Hazan secretly fears that the modest life he offers will never be enough for the future she dreams of. Torn between love and ambition, she makes a choice that will shatter Yusuf's world forever.

Years later, when Yusuf reappears, Hazan must face the consequences of the past, and the painful truth that revenge and love may be impossible to separate.

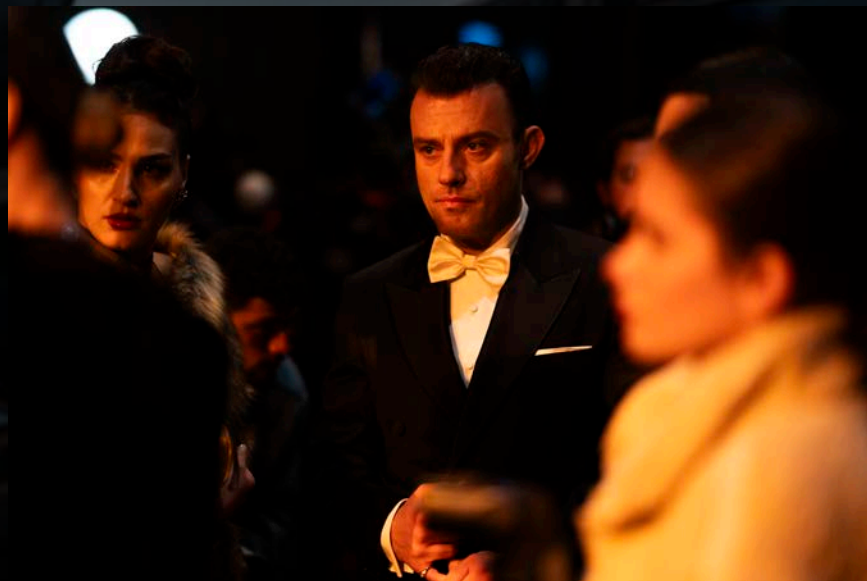

SARP KIZILHAN

SALİH BADEMCİ

Sarp is the ruthless heir of the powerful Kızılhan family. Having survived illness and trauma at a young age, he grew up believing that survival means control.

Calculating, paranoid, and dangerously charismatic, Sarp sees the world as a battlefield where power must always be protected.

Obsessed with control, especially over his sister Dila, Sarp becomes one of the greatest obstacles standing between Yusuf and his revenge.

DILA KIZILHAN

MİNA DEMİRTAŞ

Dila Kızılhan was born into privilege but raised in emotional isolation. The daughter of one of Istanbul's most powerful families, she grew up under strict control, never truly allowed to live her own life.

Smart, independent, and quietly rebellious, Dila dreams of freedom beyond the suffocating world she was born into. Her encounter with Yusuf becomes the first moment in her life where she feels something real and uncontrollable.

Unaware that Yusuf entered her life as part of a long-planned revenge, Dila becomes both his greatest vulnerability and the unexpected heart of the story.
